

Danielle Martinez, Director of Instruction

Santa Clara Pueblo

Danielle N. Martinez is an enrolled member of Santa Clara Pueblo. She has 5+ years in administration, prior to working in administration, she was a kindergarten teacher at the Santa Clara Day School. She is very active in her culture and traditions in the pueblo. She has a son, Nathan, who attends KCS. She graduated from Northern New Mexico College with her Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education in 2010. She graduated in 2018 from Adams State University with her Master's Degree in Educational Leadership with her administrative license. She is very passionate about sustaining the culture and Tewa language of Santa Clara Pueblo for future generations, which helps drive her in assisting KCS in becoming a dual language school.