

Darrin Rock, Director of Tewa Integration and Partnerships
Santa Clara Pueblo

Darrin Rock is an enrolled member of Santa Clara Pueblo. He currently resides in Santa Clara Pueblo with his wife and their three children. Darrin has over ten years of experience in tribal government in the areas of realty, business operations, language revitalization, and community outreach. His passion for language revitalization is driven by the teachings of his parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles and elders in his community. Darrin is committed to providing our students with the resources to become confident Tewa speakers.
